

JENNINGS NEWS

Theron and Jill Krizek, Logan and Kaedyn, Olathe, visited his parents Kenny and Violet Krizek over the weekend. Logan celebrated his 18th birthday on Monday, March 18.

John Tacha, Lawrence; Kara and Gordon Kuntz, Hays, attended church with Kay and Doyle Brown. Kay celebrated her birthday on Monday, March 18 also.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Stan and Ramona Shaw included Colleen and Kevin Wagoner, Sharon Springs; Mary and Jeff Wahlmeier, rural Clayton. En route home Kevin and Colleen visited his parents Wilfred and Alice Wagoner, Hoxie.

Mary Arnold hosted the Jennings Book Club on Tuesday, March 5, at the newly remodeled Jennings City Library. Members present to discuss "The Good Earth" by Pearl Buck were Kay Brown, Ruth Chance, Patty Foster, Violet Foster, Pat Hall, Terri Hanke, Lila Jennings, Sue Long, Joan McKenna, Shelley McKenna, Joanie Metz, Helen Rhodes, Lynn Tacha, and hostess Mary Arnold. Delicious brownies, cheese and crackers, and sliced meat were enjoyed by the group. "Fried Green Tomatoes at the Whistle Stop Cafe" by Fannie Flagg is the next book to be read and discussed by the Book Club.

Enjoying cards Wednesday at the Sunflower Senior Center included: Eleanor Morel, Agnes Wahlmeier, Stan and Ramona Shaw, Deb Campbell, Wayne and Louise Cressler.

Remember city election and school election to be held April 2. Bob Jones is a write-in for Jennings city Mayor; Robert Papp is a write-in for his position on the city council. Louise Cressler filed for her position on the city council.

City water meters will be read on Thursday, March 21, weather permitting.

There are still many books to be given away at the Jennings City Library. They are free to anyone who would like to have them. Any books left after April 1 will be donated elsewhere. Library hours are Wednesday and Saturday from 9 to 11 a.m., and Friday from 3 to 6 p.m.

LYLE NEWS

Joyce Sumner has made 25 small quilts for the hospital. She followed her son's advice and didn't try to drive to Lyle on Sunday. The snow, although there was not a lot of it, was blowing enough to cause visibility problems at times. Joyce's granddaughter, Amy Archer, is still waiting for a liver transplant.

Tracey Pershing drove Gary Anthony and me to church and then took her little granddaughters out to eat. They had planned on a trip to Walmart but the weather changed the plan.

Toots Magers had been pretty well snowed in, which doesn't bother her at all if we are getting some kind of moisture in return. She and eight others played pinocle on Thursday. Kathy Van Meter said they didn't have any news this week.

Carolyn Plotts sent us her recipes for Easter breakfast since she and Jim are going to Guatemala for their tour this time. We will try to do it as she does. Remember, Sunrise Service on the east side of the church, then breakfast in the Community Building.

June Jolly attended an appreciation prime rib dinner given by the McCook Eagles Club. On Monday they had their last marathon card party at the center. Her KT Club was on Thursday at the center; she played Bingo Thursday and cards again Friday. She is going right along on her quilt, also.

Dwight and Teresa Wood, Tom Baker and Steve Maddy visited at my house on Saturday. Teresa visited friends, put a new vacuum cleaner together, then, [how embarrassing] made my old one work. I don't seem to have the right touch. Dwight and Teresa are both having tests and biopsies done. We pray the news will be good.

Carol Moye took me to McCook, Neb., on Tuesday, where the doctor said the screws in my leg are holding [sounds weird]. I don't have to go back. Now I am going to Oberlin for therapy.
