LOGAN HIGH SCHOOL NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY 2013 INDUCTEES

Six students from Logan High School were inducted into the membership of the Logan Chapter of the National Honor Society in a ceremony held at the USD #326 auditorium on April 8, 2013. Speaking at this year's induction ceremony was Allyson Pakkebieer. She is the daughter of Kenny & Becky Pakkebieer and was a 2009 LHS graduate and National Honors Society member. Members were selected by a majority vote of the Faculty Council for meeting high standards of scholarship, service, leadership, and character.

Students inducted in 2013 were:

- Juniors:
 Cynthia Bressler, daughter of Heather Voss
 Michaela Girard, daughter of Kirk & Tammy Girard
 Marci Glennemeier, daughter of Jim & Virginia Glennemeier
 Logan Kiser, daughter of Randy & Jean Kiser
 Libby Schneider, daughter of Lloyd & Judy Schneider
- Senior:
 Whitney Mulder, daughter of Amy Blackburn & Rex Mulder
- National Honor Society members are chosen for and then expected to continue their exemplary contributions to the school and community. The Logan High School Chapter has been active since 1968 and currently has inducted 211 members. The National Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national organizations for high school students. Chapters exist in more than 60 percent of the nation's high schools and since 1921, millions of students have been selected for membership. Millions of dollars in scholarships have been awarded to senior members since 1945 by the sponsoring organization, the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NAASP).
