

LYLE NEWS

Brian Kelley was on his way to Lyle Sunday morning when he was seriously injured in an automobile accident. He was taken to Oberlin and flown to the hospital in Kearney, Neb. He is the grandson of Claude and Dorothy Kelley, and had purchased the home place west of Lyle. Many prayers are going up for his recovery.

On Thursday afternoon, Sherry and Sarah Browning visited Toots Magers. They and Sherry's son and daughter in law, Andrew and Cassie Browning, were at the community picnic the previous Sunday. Toots Sunday visitors were Judy and Charley Easton, Jane Engelhardt and Pam and Mike Hornung.

Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen visited an old friend, Lorri Andersen of Arapahoe, Neb. on Monday. On Saturday, they attended the funeral and dinner of her husband, Bob Andersen at the Methodist Church in Arapahoe.

Joyce Sumner attended a very nice baptismal service in Norton on Sunday where 16, including two of her great-grandchildren, Brooke and Brady, were baptized.

June Jolly has been going to garage sales where she bought material for quilts and a very nice picture, a little girl in a white dress watching a nest of baby birds. She and another lady played Bingo in Norton again, but didn't win. "Missed it by that much!"

Don Dean and Tom Baker worked on my garage Saturday, and I am very pleased with the results. My visitors were Tielia High and her children, Emily, Mariah, and Garrett Bader and Aubrey High.
