

$1 THE NORTON TELEGRAM

WEBSITE: nwkansas.com

10 PAGES

Tuesday

September 17, 2013

Briefly

Booster club to hold meeting

This week's Norton Blue Jay Booster Club meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. this Wednesday in the cafeteria of the Norton Community High School.

Speaking to the fans about early season results and upcoming competition will be head football coach Lucas Melvin, head cross country coach George Rossi, head girls tennis coach Jim Green and head girls volleyball coach Christine Thompson.

All fans of Norton Community High School sports are encouraged to attend these weekly meetings. You do not have to be a member of the booster club to attend the meetings.

Students to view, order class rings

At 5:30 Wednesday the Sophomores, along with their parents will be at the cafeteria to view and order their class rings

Story hour held for preschoolers

Preschool story hour is held at the Norton Public Library on Thursdays from 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Treasure hunt set for this weekend

U.S. Highway 36 Treasure Hunt is this Friday, Saturday and Sunday. There will be garage sales along U.S. 36 from the Colorado border to the Missouri border. One man's trash is another man's treasure.

Last 3-D shoot of the year on Sunday

The Norton Archery Club will hold a 3-D Shoot on Sunday, Sept. 22, at the northwest corner of Prairie Dog State Park. Trickle start from 9-10 a.m. For more information call 877-3253 or 877-5269.

Markets

Monday, September 16, 2013

Wheat.....	$6.83
Milo.....	$4.46
Soybeans.....	$13.09
Corn.....	$4.96

Markets Courtesy of Norton Ag Valley Co-Op

Weather

Wednesday - Clear with a high of 93 and a 20 percent chance of rain. Wednesday Night - 40 percent chance of rain. Thursday - Partly cloudy with a 40 percent chance of rain and a high of 81. Thursday Night - Mostly cloudy. Friday - Clear with a high of 79.

Prayer

Loving God, when we experience loss, help us to remember that you remain with us to console and sustain us. Amen.

Hope in color...

The Norton Valley Hope hosted a Hope in Color 5-K run on Saturday with 140 participants. The money raised by this event will go toward the Norton Valley Hope patient fund. The funds are used to assist those with financial needs with the cost of treatment. It started out with a color splash, colored powder thrown into the air covering every one. As the runners ran they were sprayed with more colored powder as they passed. By the end of the 5-K the participants were covered in pink, purple and green. Medals were given out for the top three places in each age group for both the male and female winners.

- Telegram photo by Dana Paxton

Second week of Pigskin has perfect score

By DICK BOYD

nortontelegram@nwkansas.com

The second week's entries in the Norton Telegram's Pigskin Pick-Em Contest produced one perfect entry for the second time as Tiffney Yeager, Norton, picked all games perfectly!

Tiffney will receive $15 in scrip money for first place.

Four fans missed just one game and were in the running for the next two prizes. Jennifer Boller, Norton, was closest on the tiebreaker game scores and will receive $10 in scrip money for second place. Alabama edged Texas A & M 49-42 in the tiebreaker contest and Jennifer chose Alabama by 42-31, or a total of 18 points off the actual score of each team.

Shara Dukes, Norton, will receive the $5 third prize for missing just one game and picking Alabama by 36-24, or 31 points off.

Barbara Brooks, Clayton, also missed one game but was 34 points off on the tiebreaker and Sandi Winchell, Almena, also missed one game and was 42 points off on the tiebreaker.

Incorrect on just two games were Lisa Mussman, Phillipsburg; Trey Millan, Hays; LeRoy Kaiser, Long Island; Ja'Nee Moore, Brenda Husted, Jim Winchell, Tiffany Compton, all of Almena; Kacee Boydston, Long Island; Bruce Rushton, Wilson Ellis, Steve Vollertsen, David Riemann, Mary Ann Hager, Scott Ellis, Chelle Millan, Keely Millan, Fig Millan, Jeris Norman, Kennedy Yeager, Crystal Freud-enburg, Tobi Boller, all of Norton.

Missing three contests were Niles Peterson, Shawnee; Kai Tate Mann, Kansas City; Lexie McDowell, Aaron McDowell, Brody McDowell, all of Hill City; Kenney Leiker, Ellis; Tiffany Beiker, Logan; Bob Covington, Jasmine Covington, Julie Hilburn, all of Almena; Charlotte Stephenson, Chase Rice, Keegan Smith, Dalton Smith, Doug Ray, Abby Rice, Scott Kentfield,

(Pigskin - Continued on Page 5)

Logan to hold craft fair this weekend

Don't forget the 40th Annual Hansen Arts & Crafts Fair on Saturday, September 21.

The craft show runs from 10 - 4. The Chain Saw Artist will perform at 8:00, 10:00, 12:00 and 2:30. There will be free antique appraisals from 10 - 12 and 1 - 4 in the community room. John Allen will be giving surrey rides from 10 - 4. The kids' games will start at 10:00, including turtle races, egg toss and sand treasure hunt. The inflatable amusements will open at 11:00 and the kids' tent will be open from 1:00 - 2:00.

There will be free helium balloons and face painting in the tent. We will have several artisans doing demonstrations during the day. The Deer Creek Regulators will be set up with their fast draw equipment for individuals to test their fast draw shooting skills and to be timed. Janie Lowry from Stockton will be demonstrating how to make a T-Shirt Quilt at 11:00 and 1:00 in the community room.

The Shepherd's Mill and area weavers and spinners will be doing a fleece to fabric demonstration from 10:00 to 4:00. Brian Bethke, originally from Stuttgart, will be demonstrating blacksmithing from 10:00 to 4:00. Staci Hartman from Logan will be demonstrating how to paint, and Josh Novak from Fort Hays will be demonstrating pottery making from 10:00 to 4:00.

Our entertainment for the day will be Bagpipers on the South Stage at 11:00 & 1:15 and "Left of Center" from Concordia will perform on the North Stage at 10:00, 12:00 & 2:30. Come enjoy the great day with No Admission Fee.

The Prairie Inn at Lathrop House is located at 602 North First Street in Norton and is one of three homes in this year's Norton County Arts Council Tour of Homes. The event will take place on Sunday, September 22. This home is filled with history and is being turned into a bed and breakfast by Norton's Reva Benien.

- Telegram photo by Dana Paxton

Home filled with rich history on homes tour

By DANA PAXTON

dpaxton@nwkansas.com

"This house is a bit like me, I little old and a little new," Reva Benien stated. She is the proprietor of The Prairie Inn at Lathrop House located at 602 N. First in Norton and will be on this year's Norton County Arts Council Homes Tour on September 22.

Reva bought the two and a half story home in April of this year from Sara and Lanny Davis. She plans on redoing it and making it into a bed and breakfast. Her initial plan was to be ready by May or June and now it is looking like it might be more like January, 2014. There is a lot of work that she plans on completing before opening. "It was like divine intervention that I was able to purchase one of the two houses currently for sale in Norton with such a rich history," Reva stated.

The home was built in 1915 for Dr. William Lathrop, a surgeon, and his wife Amy. Ship laborers built the frame constructed home in the mission style. It remained in the Lathrop family for years and years. After the Lathrops divorced in 1928, Mrs. Lathrop, Amy turned it into a boarding house. Amy did remarry and later died in 1969 where Mr. Lathrop died in 1942. Joe and Clair Herman owned the home for a bit but then in 1973 Sara and Lanny Davis purchased the home and have lived in it up until they sold the large home to Ms. Benien.

Reva said that it is a work in progress. She was hunting for some-

(Tour - Continued on Page 5)

