

OBITUARIES

Eleanor E. (Wilhelms) Jensen

April 9, 1931 - Jan. 4, 2014

Eleanor E. (Wilhelms) Jensen, daughter of Carl and Ida Wilhelms, was born April 9, 1931 in Blue Hill, Neb. She passed away on Jan. 4, 2014 at the Andbe Home in Norton, at the age of 82.

Eleanor grew up with her brother and four sisters on the family farm near Rosemont, Neb. She attended Rosemont and Blue Hill schools graduating from Blue Hill High School in 1949. On Aug. 19, 1950, Eleanor and Dwain Jensen were united in marriage in Rosemont, Neb. The couple lived in Paris, France and Baltimore, Md., during Dwain's service in the U.S. Army. In 1954 they moved to Norton, where Dwain took a job as an automobile parts salesman. Following Dwain's death in 1982, Eleanor worked for more than 20 years at the Andbe home while continuing to work as a seamstress out of the home.

Eleanor was very active in support of the community with her volunteer work. She was a longtime member of the Norton Eagles Auxiliary. She and Dwain dedicated a great deal of their time to the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary. For more than 20 years, Eleanor served meals at the Legion as a fundraiser for the Auxiliary. She was the long-time coordinator of the Auxiliary's medical equipment program. She also delivered meals-on-wheels regularly. In addition, Eleanor provided countless hours at The United Methodist Women's Thrift Shop.

Eleanor's favorite activities included spending time with family and friends playing cards, bingo or slot machines, and watching Kansas University Jayhawks games.

Survivors include: her daughter, Marjorie Allen of Norton; her son Mike, and his wife Andrea, of Overland Park, Kan.; two grandchildren, Chad Allen and his wife Gillian of Lawrence, Kan.; Kristin Tripe and her husband Rhett, of Orleans, Neb.; two great-grandchildren, Callaway Allen and James Allen; and two sisters, Norma Easter of Sacramento, Calif.; and Irma Nejezchleb of Omaha, Neb.

Eleanor was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, her brother, Roy Wilhelms, and sisters Doris Adams and Mona Faimon.

Memorials are suggested to the Norton American Legion Auxiliary and American Cancer Society Hope Lodge of Kansas City.

Funeral services were Tuesday, Jan. 7, at Enfield Funeral Home.

Eugene Clyde Sansom

May 5, 1929 - Jan. 1, 2014

Eugene Clyde Sansom, of Edmond, passed away at Logan Manor in Logan, on Wednesday, Jan. 1, 2014 at the age of 84.

He was born at the Sansom Family Farm near Densmore, in Norton County on May 5, 1929 to Clyde and Carrie (Patterson) Sansom. His mother passed away when he was just 20 months old. Clyde remarried when Gene was five years old to Alfride Meyer and had two daughters, Lois and Alta.

Gene attended the District 21 country school until the 8th grade, then onto the Densmore High School, graduating with the class of 1948.

He was united in marriage to Miriam Paulsen on July 15, 1951 in Phillipsburg. To this union, Rodney, Linda, Patricia and Pamela were born.

Together they farmed and raised cattle. In later years he enjoyed taking care of the oil wells in the area. He held this job for many years, and, although he enjoyed this, the paperwork he could have done without.

Gene enjoyed serving on the school board, did a term as Mayor of Edmond and was especially proud of his service on the Logan Fire Department Board, retiring after 27 years of service.

In his later years, he enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and riding his golf cart around Edmond visiting with friends and neighbors.

Gene was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Alta Griffin; a daughter-in-law, Nancy Sansom; and a granddaughter, Carrie Sansom.

Survivors include his wife, Miriam of the home; a son, Rodney and wife, Kami of Densmore; three daughters, Linda Becker and husband, Paul of Lenora, Pat Smith and husband, Stan of Logan and Pam Glick of Superior, Colo.; a sister, Lois Archer and husband, Doyle of Logan; and 13 grandchildren, Shawna Fowler and husband, Kyle, Scott Sansom, Raymond Becker and wife, Olivia, Jason Becker and wife, Sylvia, Diane Stiles and husband, Asa, Nathan Becker, Kayla Moore and husband, Adam, Kyle Smith and wife, Sarita, Whitney, Wyatt and Dana Glick; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were on Monday, January 6 at the former United Methodist Church in Edmond, with Pastor Lynn Linde officiating. Burial followed at the Edmond Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice Services, Inc., Logan Manor and the Parkinson's Disease Foundation.

Arrangements were by the Logan Funeral Home.

GINNE CONCANNON'S 85TH ON JANUARY 18

GINNE CONCANNON WILL BE 85 YEARS OLD SOON, AND OF COURSE, WE WILL BE SHARING THE "happy birthday" TUNE. ALTHOUGH SHE'S MOVED TO TEXAS, SHE CALLS NORTON HER "HOME" EACH DAY, A KANSAS GIRL AT HEART, WHAT CAN I SAY?

Norton was a very special place in mom and Sis' heart, They loved the community, the people, and always felt a part. While they have both moved on and left this town behind, The friendships and the treasured memories made an everlasting bond.

To recall those familiar faces and make mom's birthday one to treasure, We'd appreciate your cards and notes, it would bring mom so much pleasure. They say in life our legacy is not the things we left behind, And of course, dad always gave the advice, "nice matters", so be kind.

~ by Colleen

Thank you and may the year bring you health, joy and laughter
We wish you all the best though we are many miles apart.
Sis and Ginne's daughters, Colleen, Kim and Kellee
