Double plays are special and rare in baseball but three Norton American Legion players successfully pulled it off during their doubleheader with Colby on Wednesday, July 9 at John Ryan Field. The Norton Thunder Girls Softball Team completed the month of June with doubleheader victories over Smith Center and Atwood.

On Tuesday, June 24, they defeated Smith Center 3-1 and 19-1 in Smith Center and on Tuesday, July 1, they outscored Atwood 14-7 and 14-2 in Atwood.

Smith Center

The Thunder took a 2-0 lead in the top of the second inning when Kim Bradshaw tripled, Sabre Plante walked and both scored.

The Thunder's final run came across home plate in the top of the fifth inning when Bradshaw and Grace Randel both singled and Bradshaw tallied.

Smith Center scored their only run in the bottom of the fifth inning when they took advantage of two walks.

The Thunder had 4 hits, 4 walks and 5 strike outs. Bradshaw was leading hitter for Norton. She went 2 for 2 at the plate.

Winning pitcher was Genna Randel, who pitched a no-hitter, walked just 3 and struck out 11 batters.

"It took us awhile to adjust to Smith Center's pitching style but, fortunately, we didn't need to score many runs," said Norton head coach Brandon Gay. "Our defense was solid and Genna Randel threw a no-hitter. We felt in control of the game the whole way."

The Thunder got off to a slow start in the second game but ended up blowing the Lady Red out with the 19-1 win.

The Thunder scored two runs in the top of the first inning when Brachtenbach walked, Shauna Gibson singled and Amanda Kessler singled and Brachtenbach and Gibson both scored.

The best was yet to come for the Norton Thunder as they paraded eight runs across home plate in the top of the second inning. Shelby Mulford walked, Kasadie Brennforder walked, Neysa Carlson walked, Samantha Mulford singled, Brachtenbach walked, Gibson singled, Kristen Dole singled, Bradshaw walked, Kessler walked and Plante singled. All except Kessler and Plante scored.

Smith Center scored their only run in the bottom of the second inning.

The Norton Thunder put the finish on the game by running many more runs across home plate in the top of the third inning. Hildebrand singled, Mulford walked, Genna Randel walked, Brennforder walked, Carlson walked, Samantha Mulford walked, Brachtenbach walked, Gibson walked, Dole walked, Bradshaw singled, Kessler singled, Plante singled and Grace Randel walked. Kessler, Plante and Randel did not score.

The Thunder had 10 hits, 18 walks and 3 strike outs. Gibson, Kessler and Plante were each 2 for 2 with the bat.

Smith Center had no hits in the game. Genna Randel pitched two innings, walking 3 and striking out 4 batters and Kim Bradshaw pitched the final inning, walking 1 and striking out 1.

"Our bats came alive," said coach Gay. "Sometimes, hitting just doesn't come around until you play three or four games. Practice will only do so much and we've struggled to get games in.

"Genna pitched about as well as you can pitch, especially for a 14-year-old playing on an 18 and under team. It's going to be fun watching her develop over the next few years. She has a great chance to turn into a very special pitcher.

"In both games our defense took care of the batters Genna didn't. Not only did we not make any errors, we made some great plays. Grace Randel and Ashley Hildebrand both made some nice plays at third base and Shauna Gibson made one of the best plays we have seen to end the second game."

Atwood

In the first game at Atwood, the home team scored all seven of their runs in the bottom of the first inning and went scoreless the rest of the way.

The Thunder tallied five runs in the top of the first and trailed 7-5 after one stanza. Brachtenbach walked to start the game, Shelby Mulford singled, Plante walked, Bradshaw slammed a triple, Hildebrand was hit by a pitch and advanced and Genna Randel singled. All except Randel scored.

The Thunder recorded 8 hits, had 11 walks and no strike outs. Bradshaw was a perfect 3 for 3 at the plate.

Genna Randel was the winning pitcher for Norton. She allowed no hits, walked 11 and struck out 6 batters.

"Genna battled a very tight strike zone," said coach Gay. "It was frustrating, especially for a young pitcher who normally likes to work the corners. But, she adjusted and our offense gave us the runs we needed."

Only two innings were played in the nightcap. The Thunder scored five runs in the top of the first inning. Brachtenbach walked, Plante walked, Bradshaw walked, Grace Randel singled, Hildebrand singled, Genna Randel walked and Neysa Carlson singled. All except Randel and Carlson scored.
