Benefit auction set at Colby

"Stroll Down the Seine" will be the theme for the 2001 scholarship benefit, sponsored by the Colby Community College Endowment Association. The 32nd annual buffet and auction will be held at the Comfort Inn and Convention Center in Colby on Saturday, March 31. They have raised thousands of dollars for scholarships through the auction. The association is responsible for furnishing about one-third of that money ($150,000) used for scholarships each year. They encourage everyone to attend the dinner and auction. Reservations may be made by calling (785) 462-4684.

'91 grad earns doctorate

Kenyon Erickson, a 1991 graduate of Decatur Community High School, received his Doctor of Chiropractic degree on March 2 during commencement exercises at Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa. He earned a Bachelor of Science in psychology and a minor in chemistry from Fort Hays State University in 1996.

Dr. K. Erickson

He and his wife, Stacia, are moving to Manhattan, where he will open Erickson Chiropractic Health Center in the Candlewood Shopping Center on Kimball Avenue in April.

His wife graduated from Fort Hays State University in 1995 with Bachelor of Science in Nursing. She has been working as a registered nurse in Davenport and also taught Medical Assistance at Hamilton Technical College. She will be associated with her husband in his new practice.

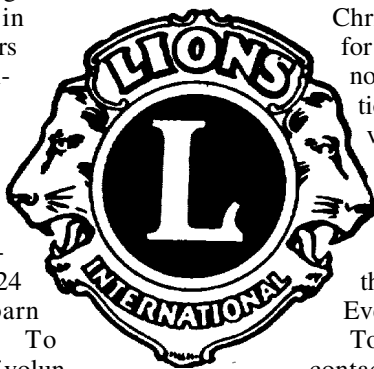

Among those attending his graduation were Stan and Linda Odle, DeAnna Albert, and Delycia McBlair, Beloit; Jed Erskin, Cawker City; Kris Erickson, Wichita; Delbert and Roxie Erickson, Oberlin, and his wife, Stacia.

Lions sponsor food packages for area

The Oberlin Lions Club is sponsoring the Heartland self-help and resource exchange (SHARE) program in Oberlin and volunteers are needed for distribution.

Final date for sign-up day this month will be at noon on Friday. Delivery will be from 9:30-10:30 a.m. on March 24 at the ambulance barn near the hospital. To qualify, two hours of volunteer service per month are required. Cost is $16.50, which includes $15 cash or food stamps, $1 for transportation and 50 cents of each order, goes to the Lions Club for the Christmas food baskets, for a total of $16.50. The not-for-profit organization is dedicated to providing a monthly basic, consistent, affordable supplemental food package to those willing to help themselves and others. Everyone is eligible. To sign up or for details, contact Marilyn Gamblin, 475-3730 or 475-8118, or any Lions member.
