Children fall through glass

Two children were cut March 5 when they fell through a window while playing at Parkview apartments.

The windows were being stored in a closet waiting for maintenance people to put them up in the VanSickle apartment when a girl, Sydney, 4, and her brother fell through one.

An ambulance and an Oberlin police officer went to the home around 9 p.m. that night. Ambulance Director John Barrett said he took the girl to the hospital in the ambulance for injuries and her brother had already been taken by car.
