Chris Claussen of Olathe sponsored the Fourth Naval Construction Battalion of Seabees annual reunion at the Holiday Inn in Salina from Wednesday to Saturday. His grandfather, Don Claussen, was a member of this battalion during World War II and over 50 were present. Others attending were Don and Genola Claussen, and Cathy Claussen, Oberlin. Joining the group on Saturday were Mark Claussen and daughter, Caitlyn, Wamego; Kerry and Shirley Hullett and Seth Morgan, Salina; Cale Claussen, Lawrence; and Angie Johnson, Olathe.

Audrey Pavlicek was honored recently by a retirement party given by the Oberlin Unified School District staff and administration. The guest of honor was accompanied by her husband, Murry; daughter, Kelli Butherus, Clay and Erin; daughter, Kerri Schippers, Kollyn, Mark and Luke, and her mother, Mary Lemman. Mrs. Pavlicek had retired after an accident in May of 2004 after teaching 38 years.

Earl and Elsie Winder returned home Sunday. They had gone to Topeka on April 1, where they met their daughter, Jerri Lee Fogg, of Riverside, Calif. Then they all went to Branson, Mo., to visit friends; to Joplin, Mo., to visit the Kent Winder family; and Springfield, Mo., where they visited Shirley Boatwright before going to Arkansas. En route back they visited the Kent Winder again before taking their daughter to Kansas City airport to leave for home. The Winders then drove to North Myrtle Beach, N.C., to visit their granddaughter, Kaitlyn Winder, and several of Earl's cousins.

Sharleen Wurm, director of the Decatur County Museum, is recuperating satisfactorily after undergoing surgery on Friday at Community Hospital in McCook. Mail will reach her at the hospital, 1301 East H, McCook, Neb., 69001.

Jim and Lillian Koger have moved to Oberlin from Denver. They purchased the home of Donna Guinn at 309 North Wolf. He is retired after working as a prototype machinist in Denver and he said they chose Oberlin to make their home after being impressed with the friendliness and beauty of the community.

Chance Harman was among equine students at the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture at Curtis who recently toured the Haythorn Ranch. The ranch is a family-operated business that combines everything, including cattle, horses and now an event center, on their 90,000 acres of leased and owned ranch land near Ogallala,

Neb. He is the son of Ron and Renee Harman of Norcatour.

Benton Banchor is recuperating from a hip fracture, which occurred in January, and a recent fracture to a bone in his right knee following a recent fall. He has moved to the home of his daughter, Elaine Dunn, while undergoing rehabilitation. He is a former Oberlin resident and a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Otis L. Benton. Mail will reach him c/o Elaine Dunn, Box 1293, Georgetown, Colo., 80444.

Kris Erickson, Lawrence; Ken and Stacia Erickson and Gavin, Manhattan; and Ron and Carol Martin, Littleton, Colo., were weekend guests of Roxie Erickson and Bernice Martin. They came for the wedding of Lindsay Martin and Wyatt Wendelin on Saturday. The Ron Martins also visited her mother, Violet Schissler.

Murry and Audrey Pavlicek were recent guests of Daniel and Kelli Butherus, Clay and Erin, of Wichita. Kollyn and Luke Schippers accompanied them and while in Wichita, they helped Erin Butherus celebrate her third birthday.

Kimia Bundgard gave her senior voice recital at Evangelical Covenant Church in Lindsborg on Saturday afternoon. She is majoring in music education with a concentration in choral music. She is a graduate of Decatur Community High School.

Michelle, Mark and John Stoecker of Oakley visited from Thursday to Sunday with their grandparents, John and Pat Wright.

Sunny and Susie Weideman of McCool Junction, Neb., visited on Sunday with her step-mother, Lucy Schissler, at the Good Samaritan Center. Sally Olson and Janice Focke of Atwood visited her on Friday.

Eloise Smith attended an instrumental concert held on Sunday at Emporia State University, in which her granddaughter, Lisa Smith, a graduate of the university, participated. Lisa is the daughter of Wesley and Carol Smith.

Shirley Dornburger of Salina visited Vivian Bishop on Wednesday afternoon.

Wayne and Phyllis Zwickle and Amy have moved to Oberlin from Grant, Neb. They have purchased a home at 711 E. Washington. Weekend guests were Dan Zwickle, Denver; Lori and Mike Godbout, Zayne and Taylor, Topeka; and Tom and Connie Zwickle, McCook.

Bob and Kay Gaskill spent last week in New York City with the Lyric Opera Guild of Kansas City, enjoying four operas at the Metropolitan Opera House. They saw "The Magic Flute," "The Masked Ball," "Valkyrie," and "Faust." They also enjoyed the Broadway shows, "The Producers" and "Avenue Q," then joined friends to visit the New York Natural History Museum, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the New York Branch of the Smithsonian Indian Museum.

Bill and Pam Harmon have moved to Fredonia, where she is working as chief nursing officer at the Fredonia Regional Medical Center. She was formerly director of nursing at the Decatur County Hospital in Oberlin.

Winning highs in pinocle at Golden Age Center the past week were Dewaine Stapp, Max Carman, Henry Edgett, Faye Miller, Wilma May, Dorothy Moore and Vivian Bishop. Lows went to Elden Haas, Aleen Van Vleet, Doris Gilbert, Floyd Edgett, Doris Miller, Veanna Carman and Myrtle Waldo. Pitch highs were won by Henry Edgett and Dorothy Moore with lows going to Floyd Edgett and Doris Miller. Bridge winners were Phyllis Lohofener, Annette Miller and Eris Young.
