Program on tea enjoyed

Chapter BH, P.E.O. Sisterhood, met on June 23 at the home of Deanne Spanier and enjoyed an informative program about the history and traditions of tea, its types and how to brew a perfect pot of tea, presented by Judy Davis. She also offered four flavors for members to sample.

Cheryl Metcalf was assistant hostess. Members signed up for work times at the Decatur county Fair in August and also for dates to host meetings next year.

Joy Russell reported that her daughter-in-law, Beth Russell, will teach at Clark Elementary School in Wichita next fall and Betty Jones told of visiting with Thelma and Boyd Bainter, who were in Oberlin recently. Cheryl Metcalf reported visiting with Paula Bainter and Margaret Lund at the P.E.O. Kansas State Convention in Hays in early June.

Candy Dejmala and Eris Young reported on the progress being made by Tanner Woolsey, who is presently in Kansas City recuperating from Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever.

The chapter met on June 9 at Cedar Living Center to host the June birthday party. Following a short program of group singing and a look back at prices and products in the early 1900s, homemade pie was served.

Diabetic group meets

Diabetes Under Control group met at the home of Elsie Wolters on June 21 with eight members present. Mabel Zimmerman was hostess.

They learned more about the glycated hemoglobin test, which is ordered by the doctor and taken at the laboratory several times a year. The test shows what the blood sugars were in the past several months, but individuals are still urged to keep a daily log of blood sugars.

The group signed a card for Merla Rhodes, who is moving to Hays and wished her the best in her new home. There will be no summer meetings. The next meeting will be announced at a later date.

Junior scouts earn badges during trip to Nebraska

Five Junior Girl Scouts from Oberlin's Troop 255 enjoyed a trip to Grand Island, Neb., including Nakita and Darian Bose, Sammy Meitl, Keatra Fisher and Kaitlin Brown. Sponsors were Kala Bose and Leta Meitl.

The group earned their own money by serving lunch at the Women's Fair at The Gateway and also selling over 1,000 boxes of Girl Scout cookies.

They enjoyed the Water Park, Stuhr Museum and shopping. All earned an On My Way Badge for the project.

Food drive planned in July for Decatur Food Pantry

R & M Service Center of Oberlin plans to sponsor a food drive during July to help replenish the Decatur County Food Pantry.

Items needed for the pantry are posted at R & M, Raye's Grocery and Dollar General. Household supplies are also needed.

The pantry is also accepting

Bibles and New Testaments, which will be given to users who would like to have them.

Oberlin grad accepted into medical school

Tarah Cook has been accepted into medical school for the fall entering classes at both the University of Kansas Medical Center and the Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences.

She has accepted the KU offer and will start school this August.

She is a 2000 graduate of Decatur Community High School and a 2004 graduate of the University of Kansas, where she received a Bachelor of Arts in human biology.

She is a tissue procurement technician for the Midwest Transplant Network, based in Kansas City. She is a member of a transplant team that procures such things as heart valves, veins, corneas, long bones and tendons. The donated tissue is used for transplant surgeries.

She is the daughter of Gale and Kendra Cook of Sabetha, and a sister of Tyler Cook of Lawrence. Her grandmothers are Gladys Cook of St. Francis and DeLoris Klipp of Greeley, Colo.

Woman has winning quilt

Theresa (Reeves) Wood, formerly of Norcat, won Viewer's Choice for a small quilt which she entered at the Nebraskaland Days Quilt Show.

Titled "Shadow Baskets," it was made of tiny quilt squares, some less than an inch, which were individually cut and pieced. She also won second place in the large quilt category for a Sunbonnet Sue calendar quilt.

She and her husband Dwight now live in McCook.

First place winner for her large quilt, "Beyond Color Purple," was Mary Wingett of Grant, Neb. Becky Sterup of North Platte won second in the small-quilt category for "Simply Quilts."
