The weather has been ideal for planning and attending all the events during this time of year. Evidently high gas prices have not slowed down any traveling in the area.

Edna Colson's daughter, Roberta Colson of Goodland, took her to Iowa on May 12 for the 80th birthday of her brother, Howard Roberts. He lives in Pilot Mound and they celebrated his birthday in Ogden on May 15. They enjoyed a Saturday moon dinner with Edna's sister, Helen Oppedal of Ruthoeu, Iowa, and her families. They all attended church on Sunday at the country church where Edna went to Sunday school and church when she lived in the area in the 20s and mid-30s. It is located northeast of Perry, where they stayed two days. En route home they stayed with daughter, Kathleen, in Norton.

Pastor Lane Purcell arrived home on Wednesday from a 10-day trip to Israel. On Thursday, he and Patty went to Oklahoma to attend the pinning and graduation of their daughter, Liz, on Friday and Saturday at Oklahoma Baptist University.

Hulda Wark is in the hospital at Hays Medical Center awaiting surgery for a broken leg.

Thursday evening Vicki Allison joined friends Brenda Kinderknecht, Paula Halvorson, Peggy Howard, Carol Barnes and Bev Vaughn to celebrate Bev's birthday at the Prairie Skillet. The group did not enjoy a sponge cake like they did at their get-together for Vicki's birthday, but a beautifully decorated cake made by Marles Rowley of "Cakes and More."

Kristin Wark moved back from Lawrence for the summer and will be working at Montana Mike's until she resumes college classes in the fall.

Brandi Wark, Angie Wagoner and Sheri Albers had a baby shower for their sister, Courtney Albers, at Brandi's home in Rexford. Kaeden McCarty received lots of nice gifts.

On Sunday, Dennis and Vicki Allison traveled to St. John to attend the high school graduation of his niece, Chelsea Winger.

Jack and Mary Minnick of Wichita spent two days with Clea Moeder last week.

There were five tables Saturday night for the last pinocle tournament until next fall. The first-place winners were Chuck and Pat Williams, second place went to Phyllis and Roseanne Ziegelmeier and third place to Warren and Julie Ziegelmeier.
