Red Devil boys down Cowboys in overtime game

The Oberlin Red Devil basketball team pulled out an overtime victory last Friday, beating the Cowboys 53-50 in Goodland.

Goodland outscored Oberlin in the first quarter, 15-10. While the Cowboys were able to hang on to a slim lead for most of the rest of the game, they never outscored the Decatur Community High boys again. In the second quarter, both teams hit for 8 points, giving Goodland a 23-18 lead going into the half.

Oberlin outscored the host team in both the third quarter, 13-10, and the fourth, 13-11, to tie up the game at 44 when the buzzer rang.

In overtime, Lucas Juenemann hit a three pointer right off the bat. Jacob Fortin added a basket plus two out of four free throws and Toby Peters hit both his foul shots to put up 9 points. The Cowboys made three baskets for 6 points but only got to the free throw line once — and missed.

With Oberlin getting eight free shots and Goodland only one in overtime, the Red Devils were able to show that fouls do count and so does making those charity shots.

Helping with the Oberlin win were J. Fortin, 13 points, four rebounds and an assist; Logan Fortin, 11 points, five rebounds and two steals; Juenemann, 10 points, three rebounds, three steals and two assists; Peters, 7 points, five rebounds, four assists and three steals; Dakota Soderlund, 5 points, four rebounds and two assists; Wiley Farr, 4 points; Josh Ritter, 2 points and a rebound; and Sam Stapp, a free throw and two rebounds.

The Red Devils were to play Grinnell/Wheatland at home on Tuesday, then will be in Colby for an 8 p.m. contest on Friday. The Colby Music Boosters will be having a soup supper from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. between the girls and boys games that night.

Next Tuesday, the Red Devils will be at home at 8 p.m. as the Norton Blue Jays come to call.

Jr. girls win two, lose two

The Decatur Community Junior High girls basketball teams played at Goodland on Jan. 15.

The eighth-grade girls came home with a win, 40-30.

Scoring were Miki Dorshorts, 8 points; Keatra Fisher, 5; and Cassidy Shields, Jordin Wasson and Darbi Rouse, 2 each.

Oberlin	2	7	12	19	40
Goodland	4	6	8	12	30

The seventh-graders lost 28-13.

“Goodland was a very good and quick team,” Coach Gina Witt said.

“The girls got very frustrated during the game. We saw the areas that we need to improve on.”

Scoring were Hannah May and Jamie Soderlund, 6 points each, and Alexis Hissong with a free throw.

RAWLINS COUNTY

Thursday, Jan. 22, the junior high girls went to Atwood. The eighth-grade girls won 25-11.

“Defensively, the girls are playing very well,” Coach Melissa Dreher said. “We need to be more patient with our offense. Overall, the girls are improving each week.”

Scoring were Miki Dorshorst, 11 points; Keatra Fisher, 9; Cassidy Shields and Jordin Wasson 2 each; and Darbi Rouse, 1.

“The boys in the first dual did fairly well,” Coach Shane Bird said. “For a lot of the kids, it was first-time wrestling.”

The boys will be in Goodland on Thursday to take on the Mustangs from Grant Junior High and the Oakley Plainsmen.

WHILE HE BEAT OPPONENTS from Atwood and Oakley, Everett Urban (above) couldn't overcome Keegan Smith of Goodland in the Northwest Kansas League Tournament last week and finished second. Jacob Helm (below) won one match and lost one during the Beloit Tournament the previous weekend.

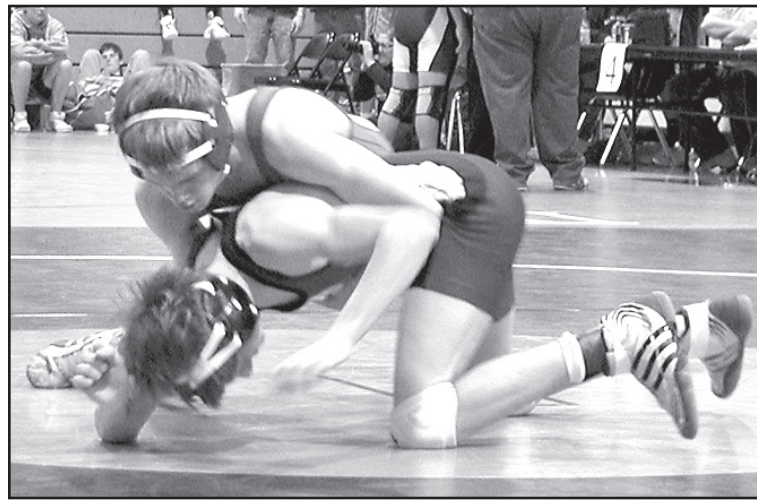

Oberlin gets fifth in league

Oberlin came in sixth at the Northwest Kansas League Tournament on Saturday, with five Red Devils returning home with medals.

Everett Urban led the team, taking second at 152 pounds. Jacob Helm and Jacob Larue came in third at 112 and 215 pounds. Brent Juenemann and Nathan Simonsson took fourth at 119 and 171.

Colby won the tournament with 209.5 points, followed by Goodland, 157.5; St. Francis, 102; Oakley, 90.5; Hoxie, 65; Oberlin, 60.5; and Atwood, 53.

Wrestling for Oberlin were:
 • 112 pounds, Helm lost 16-9 to Freddie Pacheco, St. Francis; pinned Corey Davis, Goodland; pinned Kollyn Schippers, Hoxie; was pinned by Nathan Rood, Colby, for third.

- 119 pounds, Juenemann pinned Chris Helm, Hoxie; lost 8-2 to Dryden Bouminik, Colby; pinned David Leibbrandt, St. Francis; and lost 8-4 to Seth Miller, Goodland for fourth.
- 125 pounds, Nolan Peters lost 17-3 to Jace Campbell, Oakley, and lost 16-0 to Kade Sheldon, Goodland.
- 140 pounds, Ray Zodrow lost 16-2 to Heath Stephens, Colby, and lost 8-0 to Cayle Taylor, Hoxie.

- 171 pounds, Simonsson pinned Tyler Martin, Atwood; lost 9-0 to Ryan Taylor, Goodland; pinned Andy Hullman, Oakley; and was pinned by Scott Ford, St. Francis, for fourth.
- 215 pounds, Larue was pinned by Tanner Kriss, Colby; pinned Tyler Janzen, Oakley; and was pinned by Tanner Oharah, Goodland, for third place.

Wrestlers lack manpower

Going up against the Goodland Cowboys, ranked third in the state in Class 3-2-1A, was tough on the Oberlin Red Devils, who were only able to win two out of nine matches and had to forfeit in five weight classes.

Goodland beat Oberlin 60-12 in a dual meet Friday at the Decatur Community High gym.

Oberlin was not able to fill the 103, 130, 135, 160 or 285-pound weight classes, thus automatically forfeiting 30 points. Oberlin started out short on a couple of weights, then academics and injuries put several more wrestlers out of commission, Coach Joe Dreher said.

“It's difficult to compete in any dual giving up five weights,” Coach Dreher said. “I thought the guys wrestled hard. Goodland is one of the top teams in the state.”

Wrestling were:

- 112 pounds, Jacob Helm pinned Corey Davis.
- 119 pounds, Brent Juenemann pinned Seth Miller.
- 125 pounds, Nolan Peters lost 13-0 to Kade Sheldon.
- 140 pounds, Ray Zodrow lost 5-1 to Hector Sariana.
- 145 pounds, Gatlin Reichert was pinned by Lorenzo Delgado.
- 152 pounds, Everett Urban lost 4-2 to Keegan Smith.
- 171 pounds, Nathan Simonsson lost 11-2 to Ryan Taylor.
