Alice Lorane May
Alice Lorane May, 90, a lifelong resident of Decatur County, died Tuesday, Jan. 12, 2010, at the Decatur County Hospital in Oberlin.
She was born Jan. 16, 1919, on the family farm in Sappa Township of Decatur County, the daughter of Walter and Lela (Lemman) Rezner.
Alice was reared on the family farm. She attended Logan School District and graduated from Decatur Community High School in 1936. During her senior year, she completed Normal Training to become a teacher. She attended summers school in Hays and Greeley, Colo., to keep her teacher certificate current. While her fiancé, Arthur May, was in the service, she and her sister, Lee Ora, traveled the country coast to coast.
She married Arthur May on May 10, 1946, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Oberlin. They were married for 63 years and lived on a farm northwest of Oberlin. The couple adopted their infant daughter and only child, Dianne Louise, in 1952.
She served as a 4-H sewing instructor for several years and taught at the Vickers Country School and St. John's Lutheran Parochial School until becoming a mother. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church and the Progressive Homemakers Unit. She became the head cook at Decatur Community High School, retiring in 1989. In addition, she made and decorated wedding cakes and catered many area banquets, with her husband assisting.
Survivors include her daughter, Dianne and John Bremer, Oberlin; two granddaughters, and a sister, Lois Carlson, Oberlin.
She was preceded in death by her husband on June 7, 2009; her parents; a brother, Walter Wayne Rezner, and three sisters, Lee Ora Carlson, Doris Staack and Maurine Kay Hartman.
Funeral services were held Saturday morning at St. John's Lutheran Church in Oberlin. The Rev. Kevin Schnakenberg officiated and burial was at the Oberlin Cemetery.
A memorial was established to the Decatur County Good Samaritan Van Maintenance Fund. Contributions may be sent to Pauls Funeral Home, 121 N. Penn, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.
