Corrections

A Page 1 story in the Wednesday, Nov. 17, edition of The Oberlin Herald reported incorrectly that a Decatur County sheriff's deputy pronounced Miceal Leroy Quakenbush dead at the scene of an accident. It actually was the coroner who pronounced him dead; the sheriff's department doesn't do that. This was a reporter's error.

In the same edition, a story on Page 3A said a beer-tasting fund raiser for the bowling alley is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 6. It is actually Saturday, Dec. 4. This was a reporter's error.

A story on Page 1A said incorrectly that the Community Thanksgiving Dinner would start at 10:30 a.m. It doesn't start until noon. This was a reporter's error.

The Oberlin Herald will correct or clarify any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at 475-2206 to report errors. We believe that news stories should be fair and factual, and appreciate your calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.

SHERIFF'S BLOTTER

The Decatur County sheriff's of-rice reported these calls last week:

• At 2:55 p.m. Friday, Nov. 12, Billy Arterburn, 52, of Texas bumped into the back of a 2006 Toyota pickup driven by Ken Shobe, 60, Oberlin. Mr. Arterburn was driving a 2001 Freightliner semitrailer rig south on U.S. 83 and came up to the intersection with U.S. 36 behind Mr. Shobe.

Mr. Shobe was stopped at the stop sign. Mr. Arterburn said his foot slipped off the clutch and bumped the truck in front of him, said Police Chief Wade Lockhart.

There was minor damage to Mr. Shobe's truck. Mr. Arterburn got a ticket for inattentive driving.

• At 7:17 a.m. the same day, Chief Lockhart said, he discovered that the door to the Conwood Car Wash on U.S. 36 had been forced open. Someone destroyed the bill changer in the building, he said, causing $3,000 in damage failing to get any money.

The break-in happened sometime between Thursday, Nov. 11, and Friday, Nov. 12.

• On Sunday, Nov. 14 Officer Troy Haas arrested Christopher Rodriguez, 42, on a warrant for bad checks from Rooks County.
