Obituaries

Dixie M. Goltl

Dixie M. Goltl, 76, a retired Oberlin businesswoman, died Wednesday, March 28, 2012, at the Decatur County Hospital in Oberlin.

She was born June 24, 1935, in Traer, the daughter of Gordon and Esther (Leitner) Rathbun. Her father taught school and his job took the family to Traer, Allison, Jennings and Norton. They moved to Oberlin in 1947, and she graduated from Decatur Community High School in 1953. After graduating from the McCook Beauty Academy, she worked with her mother at the Kut and Kurl Beauty Shop in Oberlin.

She married Wayne Goltl on Oct. 3, 1954, at the United Methodist Church in Oberlin. The couple started Goltl Construction and Home Planning Center downtown, and she managed the store for 30 years. She was an active member of the Oberlin business community before retiring in 2000. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, the Lioness Club, the Mini Sappa Antique Club, the Decatur County Museum, the American Legion Auxiliary and the Decatur Saddle Club. She helped her husband restore cars, and the couple traveled to many car shows.

Survivors include her husband, Wayne; a daughter, Dana (Marlin) Marintzer, Oberlin; a brother, Larry (Jacki) Rathbun, McCook; and a sister, Dee Anna Krizek, Oberlin.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Gary Rathbun; and a brother-in-law, Bennie Krizek.

Services were Saturday afternoon at Pauls Funeral Home in Oberlin. The Rev. Linda Willey officiated and burial was in the Oberlin Cemetery.

A memorial was established to Decatur Health Systems, in care of the funeral home 121 N. Penn, Oberlin, Kan., 67749. Condolences may be sent at www.paulsfh.com

Doris Fae Jackson
Doris Fae Jackson, 89, a native of Clayton, died Sunday, April 1, 2012, at Whispering Pines in Norton.

She was born March 29, 1923, at Clayton, the daughter of King and Iva (Smith) Gallentine. When she was 2, the family moved to Decatur County to become part of the Gallentine community. She attended the Gallentine School and graduated from Clayton Rural High School in 1941.

She married Marvin Jackson on March 17, 1942, in Quinter. They lived on the family farm until moving to Norton in 1993. She was a member of the Maple Grove Church of the Brethren, the Maple Grove Women's Fellowship and the Norcatat Extension Unit.

Survivors include two sons, Kenneth (Sue) Jackson, Stillwater Okla., and Bob (Jan) Jackson, Littleton, Colo.; a daughter, Karen (David) Cozad, Norton; a sister-in-law, Inez Jackson; three grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and 11 step-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and a brother, Lyman Gallentine.

Services will be at 2 p.m. today at the Enfield Funeral Home in Norton with Darel Boston and Terry Loughlin officiating and burial in the Norcatat Cemetery.

A memorial was established to Hospice for Norton County, Whispering Pines or the Norcatat Citizens Fund, in care of the funeral home, 215 W. Main, Norton, Kan., 67654.

Emma Sanford
Emma Catherine Sanford, 93, a longtime resident of Jennings, died Sunday, April 1, 2012, at the Decatur County Good Samaritan Center in Oberlin.

She was born July 9, 1918, in Bloomington, Neb., the daughter of Daniel and Minnie (Pears) Sanford. The family moved to Calvert, where they lived until her father's death in 1929. They then moved to Almena, where she attended school. In 1943, the family moved to Jennings, where she was a housekeeper and cared for her mother. She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Jennings.

Survivors include nieces and other relatives.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers, Frank and George Sanford; and three sisters-in-law, June, Zora and Marilyn Sanford.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. today at the United Methodist Church in Jennings with the Rev. Barbara Patterson officiating and burial in the Jennings Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be given in her name in care of Pauls Funeral Home, 121 N. Penn, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.

Christina Marie Shobe

Christina Marie Shobe, 41, of Baldwin City, a sister of Ken (Janice) Shobe and Sandy (Terry) Rush of Oberlin, died Monday, March 26, 2012, at the Baldwin Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center.

She was born Aug. 21, 1970 in Oberlin, the daughter of Roy L. Shobe Jr. and Ann Catherine Shobe. She had Down's Syndrome but was always "up," her family said. She loved her family and all who cared for her. She loved coloring, Barbie dolls, Dr. Pepper and the Disney Channel. She participated in Special Olympics and won many awards.

In 1988, she finished her schooling in Ottawa, then worked at COF there. After moving to Lawrence, she became a production line worker for Cottonwood Inc. She lived at Roger's House, her group home, for many years. She attended St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Lawrence.

Survivors also include her father, Lawrence; three sisters; Cindy (Don) Whiteley and Debby (Terry) Gungelman, Lawrence, and Becky (Wayne) Cooper, Edmond, Okla.; and three brothers; Don (Ellen) Shobe, Lawrence; Joe (Marie) Shobe, Wichita; and Andy (Marcia) Shobe, Fayetteville, Ark.; 16 nieces and nephews; and five great-nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her mother on Sept. 24, 2011; a niece, Emily Shobe; and a great-nephew, Alex Whiteley.

Mass of Christian Burial was Monday at the church in Lawrence, with burial in Mount Calvary Cemetery there.

The family suggests memorials in her name to the rehab center, Cottonwood Inc. or the church, in care of the Warren-McElwain Mortuary, 120 W. 13th Street, Lawrence, Kan., 66044. Online condolences may be sent at www.warrenmcelwain.com.

Luella Sloan
Funeral services are pending for A. Luella Sloan, 83, who died Sunday, April 1, 2012, at her home in Oberlin.

She was a sister of James Gaines of Oberlin and a 1946 graduate of Decatur Community High School.

Pauls Funeral Home of Oberlin is in charge of arrangements. A complete obituary will be carried in next week's paper.

Grace Irene Tice

Grace Irene Tice, 93, a Decatur County native and a former teacher in area schools, died Wednesday, March 28, 2012, at the Jewell County Hospital in Mankato.

She was born Nov. 25, 1918, on the family farm in rural Decatur County, the daughter of Amel and Mable (Conklin) Anderson. She attended school in Selden and graduated from Selden High School in 1936. She received bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Fort Hays State University.

She married Merlin D. Tice on April 26, 1942, in Decatur County. She was an elementary teacher, starting her career in one-room rural schools then teaching at Dresden, Selden, Rexford and Hoxie. She was a member of Kansas National Educational Association and the United Methodist Church.

Survivors include a son, Leland (Sheryl) Tice, Mankato; a son-in-law, Gayle (Linda) Dible, Oakley; two grandsons; step-grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Merlin; a daughter, Phyllis Dible; and two brothers, Carl and Howard Anderson.

Services were Monday at the Hoxie United Methodist Church with Pastor Cyd Stein officiating and burial in the Hoxie City Cemetery.

Memorials are suggested to the Sheridan County Health Complex, the church or the Jewell County Hospital, in care of the Mickey-Leopold Funeral Home, Box 987, Hoxie, Kan., 67740.
