Whitney Armstrong, Joplin, Mo.; Kevin and Colleen Wagoner, Sharon Springs.

Memorial weekend guests at the home of Stan and Ramona Shaw were Danny and Carls Black, Logan and Bowen, Cimbard, N.M. They also stayed at the home of Zach and Katie Golemboski, Lexy and Lenzy in Colby.

The Jennings Book Club met Thursday at the home of Helen Rhodes. Bill Bryson's book, "I'm a Stranger Here Myself" provided a humorous overview of his experiences when he moved back to the United States after living in England for a number of years. Members enjoying Helen's delicious treats and the discussion were: Kay Tacha, Ruth Chance, Patty Foster, Terri Hanke, Joan McKenna, Shelley McKenna, Lynn Tacha, Lila Jennings, Carla Latimer, Sue Long and Helen.

The Sunflower Senior Citizens potluck supper will be held at 6 p.m. Tuesday in the center. Three daughters of Denise and Scott Taylor, Dresden, will be entertaining the group with their piano solos at 7 p.m. Everyone is welcome to join us.

Lyle News

Kathy Van Meter and Lloyd Frandsen attended a cancer benefit on Saturday in McCool Junction, Neb., for the Cattlemen of Nebraska. The benefit was sponsored by the Omaha Hospital who uses the money for cancer care and research. There was a store, tents, entertainment, and a sale of donated items including a grain bin. The sale brought in over one million dollars. In the evening they were treated to a banquet and dance. On Sunday, they went to the Wilsonville Rodeo.

June Jolly is finishing a baby quilt; is swimming every week day; and doing her usual cards and Bingo. She attended the "Doe's" party at the Eagles. They had three different card games going on, and she won a prize, which consisted of wine, miscellaneous items, and then to top it off, won a cup. No wonder she had offers of people to accompany her home. She is to have club at Willow Ridge this week.

Twelve dined at the Lyle Community Building on Sunday, with enough food for that many more. We always have a good time.

Judy Easton told us her granddaughter, Katie Guy, who graduated from college a year ago is to be the manager of a Buckle store in Stillwater, Okla. Her younger sister, Kurstin, plans to go to Germany on a 10-day student exchange. Congratulations to both of them.

Good Samaritan Center

By Lisa Paulson

This week Good Samaritan Center hosted the Teens for Christ Mission Trip send off. Nineteen young men and women joined us for Songs of Worship on Wednesday, then received their "marching orders" over lunch provided by Ten Cent Evangelism (John and Lisa Paulson's ministry). The group headed to South Dakota to do mission work. They will be back at Good Sam at 7 p.m. Monday to give reports on their experience; everyone is invited to join us.

In the meantime, Amy Rehm has the list of names and is praying for each one. The young ones do set a good example for us and we are inspired by their enthusiasm.

Mary Henzel brought an even younger group of piano students to share their gift and love of music. Jenavive Zillinger, Bethany Mason, Carmen Winder and Patience and Isaac Carman all took their place at the piano and demonstrated their talent. It is always a blessing to watch the children grow both in stature and ability throughout the years, and it is fun to watch the residents as they watch the kids. Toes tapping, "air piano" fingers helping from their seats, smiles of encouragement and a raised eyebrow with a compassionate wince if a note is missed. They really are "just grandmas and grandpas" proud to be invited!

Homemade ice cream was served at the Community Ice Cream Social held in honor of National Nursing Home Week. Wheat Ridge Terrace residents were our guests of honor. Cheryl Miller and Loren Schrock provided entertainment and Anita Hirsch tried to stump the crowd with some fun Ice Cream Trivia - but to no avail - they all knew their ice cream.

Carol Duncan and Yuki Berkheimer furnished the treats for Social Hour, and treats they were! Delicious bread pudding with raisins and orange sauce, and for those without a sweet tooth, summer sausage with cheese and crackers was the ticket.

The aviary has some new birds! We now have diamond doves, canaries, society finches and pretty gouldings. Be sure when you stop by to take a look.

At 6 p.m., today, we will have our Family Barbecue Potluck, highlighting the "Good Old Days". Part of those remembrances included skinny-dipping in the local fishing hole, that's what the pond area has turned into... in honor of Father's Day.

Our guests this week: Reva Marshall for Dorothy Hunt. Diana Alstrom with Daisy (Hoxie), Mark and Ashley Carman (McCook) and Max Carman for Myrtle Waldo. Connie and Johnnie Simonsson for Amy Rehm. Carol Duncan and Marilyn Horn for Myrtle Ross. Marvin and Sharon Slabaugh for Opal Bryan. Murry and Audrey Pavlicek for Mary Lemman.
