Girls preparing for home tourney

The Decatur Community High volleyball teams did not play last week, but the girls were to play St. Francis and Cheylin in Oberlin on Tuesday.
Saturday, the Lady Red Devils will hold the annual Oberlin Invitational Volleyball Tournament with Hoxie, Rawlins County, St. Francis and Norton.
The tournament, which will include both varsity and junior varsity teams, will begin with pool play at 9 a.m.
The winners will be determined by how many matches each team wins in pool play. There will be no bracket play.
Games in the senior high gym will be:
• Oberlin vs. Rawlins County.
• St. Francis vs. Norton.

• Hoxie vs. Rawlins County.
• Norton vs. Oberlin.

Girls take second at Hill City

The Decatur Community High cross country girls came in second and the boys fifth in the Hill City Invitational on Thursday, and four Red Devils runners brought home medals.
"Both boys and girls competed well in Hill City," Coach Pat Dorschorst said. "It was a beautiful day for running and a great course."
Winter Polivka came in ninth for the girls, running the course in 16 minutes, 58 seconds.
Darbi Rouse took 10th place in 17:03 and Caitie Shields was 12th in 17:34.
Matthew Helm came in 12th in 19:26 for the boys to snare a medal.

Also running for the girls were:
• Brittany Urban, 19:49, 33rd.
• Ashley Witt, 21:33, 40th.
• Emily Larson, 25:16, junior varsity.
No placings were given for the junior varsity race.
Coach Dorschorst said she was proud of Urban and Witt, who closed the gap behind the team leaders. She was also happy with the boys after the race.
"This week it was the boys' turn to have vast improvement on their times," she said.

Also running for the boys were:
• Ganon Henningson, 20:23, 25th.
• Parker Smith, 21:52, 43rd.
• Caleb Koerperich, 22, 44th.
• Timothy Helm 24:25, 53rd.
• Daniel Lerew, 25:52, junior varsity.
• Jude Walinder, 28:41, junior varsity.
M. Helm, Henningson, Smith and Harris all cut almost a minute off their time from McCook, the coach said, and T. Helm cut off 25 seconds.
"Caleb ran on an ankle that he sprained on Monday," Coach Dor-shorst said, "so he did not have as good a day as he has been having."

"All the runners continue to work hard and compete well. We are moving up in our places, which is what we need to continually strive to do."
This week, the Red Devils were to hold the annual Oberlin Invitational cross country race at the Oberlin Country Club on Tuesday.
Next Tuesday, the Oberlin runners will be at the Northwest Kansas League meet starting at 4:30 p.m. in Hoxie.

Seventh-grade girls beat St. Francis Indians

The Decatur Community Junior High seventh-grade volleyball girls beat St. Francis on Thursday but lost to Leoti a week ago.
On Sept. 13, the girls played host to the Leoti Cardinals. The Oberlin seventh-grade B-team lost 25-20, 25-10 and the C-team lost a single set, 25-13.
"We came out really good, but lost the boost after a couple of dropped balls," said Coach Cricket Ketterl. "We are still continuing to improve and set the ball up several times."
Celiana Shobe, Haylee Hileman and Stacia Russ all served

100 percent, she said.
Last Thursday, the girls were in St. Francis playing the young Lady Indians.
The Oberlin B-team downed the St. Francis girls in three sets 25-20, 17-25, 15-7.
The Lady Red Devils C-team lost in a close set, 25-23.
"We played awesome out in St. Francis," Coach Ketterl said. "The girls set the ball up several times and our serving was much better. These girls keep improving every week and work very hard for us."
This week the girls will play at 4:30 p.m. Thursday in Atwood.

Gymnastics Club plans 5K fun race

The Creative Movements Gymnastics Club of Oberlin will be hold a 5K fun run/walk and kids one-mile walk Saturday at Sappa Park.
Both events will start at the shelter house and will go along the paved paths at the park, said organizer Sarah Howland, so strollers are welcome.
Registration will begin at 7:15 a.m. The 5K race will start at 8 a.m. and the kids race will begin right after that.
The cost will be $20 for the 5K, $10 for kids 12 and under and $5 for Creative Movements students.
Prizes will be given for top male and female runners and for first, second and third in the kids' run.

All participants will receive a commemorative water bottle; drinks and snacks will be provided.
Registration forms are available at Ward Drug or by calling Mrs. Howland at 475-2187 or Robyn Rouse at 475-8249.

Junior varsity boys lose to Smith Center

The Oberlin Red Devils junior varsity football team lost 24-14 to the Smith Center Red Men in Oberlin last Monday.
"The young players have really worked hard this season to improve and played a close game," Coach Caleb Howland said.
Kelden Breth scored both of the Oberlin touchdowns. Kaine Fredrickson added a two-point conversion and Bryson Wesley, Gabe Anderson and Troy Juenemann all ran the ball well, the coach said.

Kelden Breth completed passes to Kyle Breth and Keagan Blau.
"The young Red Devils played hard on defense and showed a lot of improvement over last week's game at Phillipsburg," he said.
Next week, the junior varsity will play the Trojans at 5:30 p.m. Monday in Cambridge, Neb.
