

THE OBERLIN HERALD — From the Record

Courthouse

These transactions were taken from the records in the offices of the Decatur County court clerk, sheriff and register of deeds:

DISTRICT COURT Traffic

Sept. 29: Shelby Jay Vance, Selden, no seatbelt, $10.
Oct. 9: Anthony Steven Zillinger, Oberlin, failure to yield, $173.

JAIL BOOKINGS

The following were booked into the Decatur County Jail:
Rhys Davies, 24, Oberlin, was booked for protective custody on Friday by the Oberlin Police Department, said Undersheriff Allen Marcum. He later was taken to the Larned State Hospital.

SHERIFF'S BLOTTER

• There were a few minor deer accidents, said Undersheriff Allen Marcum, but nothing that warranted an official report.
"They're (in pre-rut) right now," he said, "and it's just about time for them to start rut. They're moving, and with the switch in weather, they need to be watched out for. They're always bad here, but this time of year they're really bad."

City Hall POLICE BLOTTER

The Oberlin Police Department worked the following calls last week:

• Ahit-and-run accident happened during the turkey dinner between 6:30 and 9:50 p.m. last Wednesday at 814 W. Cedar. Larry St. Clair, Oberlin, reported that the door and fender of his car had been hit, though the damage was assessed to be under $1,000. There are no suspects, but the case is being investigated.

• A report was made at 5:30 p.m. Saturday that a set of keys had been stolen sometime Friday night at the Good Samaritan Center. Pauline Henderson, Oberlin, said that her keys were taken out of her work locker, including a remote lock controller. She estimated it would cost at least $300 to replace the remote and its accompanying key. Officer Scott Zeigler said that they searched her car, the outside of the grounds and the center itself, but couldn't find the keys.
