Oberlin beats McCook

Phillipsburg wins triangular battle

The Decatur Community High Red Devils wrestlers celebrated senior night with a 48-30 win over the McCook Bison but fell 38-30 to the Phillipsburg Panthers in a triangular match in Oberlin on Thursday. Phillipsburg won the meet with a 72-9 victory over McCook. Phillipsburg had a full roster of wrestlers and the 12 points Oberlin lost to open weights made the difference in the Panther victory. McCook had three open weights. Oberlin honored its four seniors, Kelly Brown, Matt Glading, Cody Wurm and Channing Fortin during a break in the action. This is not the Red Devils last home appearance, however, as they will wrestle in the annual Oberlin Invitational Tournament on Saturday. Oberlin will also be the host school for the Western Kansas Tournament of Champions tournament on Saturday, Jan. 26.
