A complete obituary was carried in the July 4, 2012, issue of The Oberlin Herald.

Clarification

Dylan Coryell, found guilty of second-degree, non premeditated murder and aggravated battery on March 27, was sentenced last Monday in Decatur County District Court to 17 years in prison, with a minimum of 15 years to be served. A story on Page 1 of the June 19 Oberlin Herald reported that Mr. Coryell had been sentenced to 15 years. Judge Preston Pratt's original sentence was 17 years with a 15 percent good time credit, meaning Coryell can be released as early as 15 years with good behavior.
