Treats for school children

The Haigler Legion will hold their annual soup supper Saturday, Dec. 9. They will begin serving at 4 p.m. and continue until 8 p.m. at the Haigler Legion Hall. The proceeds go toward providing Christmas treats for the school children.

Christmas program

At the United Methodist Church in Haigler, the children will be presenting the Christmas musical "The Flower of the Holy Night" on Sunday, Dec. 17, at 5 p.m. The story celebrates the wonders of Jesus' birth in a retelling of the legend of the poinsettia. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Celebrates 92nd birthday

LaVoine T. Collicott celebrated his 92nd birthday at the Hillcrest Care Center in Wray on Dec. 1. He enjoyed seeing and hearing from many friends in the Haigler area...having lived in Haigler for 91 years.

His daughters, LaNeta Carlock, Myrna Mulligan and Galena Webster became the Classy Clowns again to help their father celebrate. The Swinging Seniors band, composed of members throughout Kansas and Colorado, provided wonderful "old time" music, some Christmas carols for the holiday season, and the Happy Birthday song. Members of the band played LaVoine's banjo from the 1920s and LaVoine's father's fiddle from the late 1800s. Both instruments had been restored and played beautifully.

Family, friends, residents and staff of Hillcrest Care Center all contributed to LaVoine having a wonderful celebration day. Refreshments of decorated birthday cakes, icecream, mints, punch and coffee were served by The Classy Clowns. The event was video taped, and many pictures taken.

Mock Trail team

Brent Wheaton, son of Jim and Jerrie Wheaton, is part of a Mock Trial team that is competing in the State Finals at Lincoln, Neb., as of Tuesday and Wednesday this week. The Mock Trial is a school activity, teaching students to conduct a trial using at least three lawyers and three witnesses on a team. They have worked their way to the finals by successfully passing three hurdles...the local, the district and a regional competition.

Dode Faylor visited Sophia Zuege on Saturday afternoon and Albert Jr. from Imperial visited on Sunday.

Lucile Corder returned home on Monday after spending the past two weeks at the home of her daughter and husband, Leigh and Terry Renzelman of Parker, Colo. They were all dinner guests of her granddaughter, Tobie, and husband, Mike, on Thanksgiving Day at the Golden Corral in Denver. Mike's were Mr. and Mr. Kenneth Rose, Sylvia Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Zuege and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Madsen and Kinsey.

mother and sister were also guests. Leigh and Terry Renzelman of Parker, Colo., returned home on Tuesday after spending Monday at the home of her mother, Lucile Corder. They also visited at the home of his parents, Clarence and Ginger Renzelman of Wray on Tuesday

Sunday evening Don and Virginia Harford and Karen Harford visited in the home of Lucille Corder. The four then journeyed to Benkelman to the candlelight service of Remembrance and Hope at the Forch Funeral Chapel.

Stan and Galena Webster hosted Thanksgiving Day dinner in their home. Galena was able to bring her father, LaVoine Collicott, to join them. LaNeta Carlock joined the family for dessert and coffee later in the afternoon. The weather was so lovely that all went for a golf cart ride around the village.

LaNeta Carlock visited her aunt, Grace Adams and aunt and uncle, Betty and Gerald Myer this past week to deliver Thanksgiving goodies.

The three Collicott sisters, LaNeta Carlock, Myrna Mulligan and Galena Webster, recently drove to Greeley and Loveland, Co and then on to Estes Park to spend the night.

Book Review

Book review from
St. Francis Public Library
Miracle
By Danielle Steel

The lives of three strangers are about to collide...

For Quinn Thompson, the storm of the century will bring down a barrier he has built around himself since his wife's death. For neighbor Maggie Dartman, it will spark friendship at a time she needs it most. And for Jack Adams, a carpenter who repairs Quinn and Maggie's homes, the storm brings an opportunity: to help two people and to be repaid with the greatest gift of all.

A unique friendship is forged and something extraordinary begins to happen...Maggie, still grieving a loss, slowly comes alive again - and Jack finally shares a painful secret he has hidden for years. But at the center of the friendship is Quinn. A man who has scaled the heights of business, Quinn is now adrift, waiting as builders finish a yacht he plans to sail around the world. Consumed by guilt over all he missed with his family, he is focused only on escaping to the sea. But as his friendship with Maggie begins to change, Quinn faces a choice - between a safe haven and an adventure of the heart. The choice he makes will affect other lives as powerfully as his own. And it will take him into a second terrifying storm that will bring him danger...or deliverance.
